Daily Point-In-Time Database

S&P Capital IQ captures all instances of a company's filings from press releases, initial filings and all subsequent filings. Since this history is saved daily for all companies, true "as of" information can be captured to see what numbers were available at any point-in-time for more accurate multiples and valuation analysis. Each financial item, ratio and growth rate is offered in five period types: annual, semi-annual, quarterly, year-to-date and last twelve months.

Deep, Differentiated Data

Leverage our seven standardized, industry-specific financial statement templates for more in-depth and accurate company comparisons. Easily switch from industry-specific to standard to directly analyze across industries.

Enhanced Analysis with Integrated Analytics and Content

All S&P Capital IQ fundamentals are seamlessly integrated throughout our platform and Excel® Plug-In, allowing you to populate your models and analyze additional data such as detailed ownership, estimates, transaction and market data. Utilize our Screening tool to combine company fundamentals with qualitative and event-focused criteria in a single screen to find prospective investments, create comparables, or locate M&A targets.

Excel Plug-In

The screenshot displays the S&P Capital IQ Excel Plug-In interface. The main window shows a spreadsheet titled "DISCOUNTED CASH FLOW MODEL" for ticker NYSE:IDM. The spreadsheet includes a table of financial data from 2008 to 2017, with columns for Total Revenue, Annual Growth, Cost of Revenue, Margin, EBITDA, and Unlevered Free Cash Flow. A callout box on the right states: "Build your own financial models using the Formula Builder or utilize our vast library of prebuilt model templates". The "Formula Builder" dialog box is open, showing a list of financial categories like Income Statement, Balance Sheet, and Cash Flow, with options to select a data item and formula.
